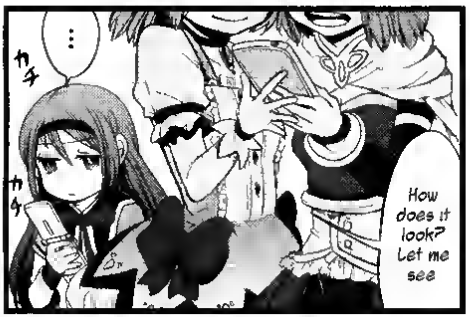
Tangled up with those annoying Witches again
Will Sayaka-chan be fine?
Eh~?
We can't get a discount~?
Not just discounts, our regulars get all kind of gifts too
I'm very sorry, but this store's discounts are only for regular customers
Everything half off~
Even that franchised cafe by the train station has coupons~?
Welcome to
Cafe Grief Seed
HYNATA Kotori
When did we start offering memberships for this store?
Well, first use your smartphone or PC to visit our website, apply for membership...
I say~
How can we become regulars here~?

New Trends...

I was against it in the beginning
Small local shops have their own advantages
We can do more to cater to our customers' tastes



Nowadays

That new cafe that opened nearby took a lot of our business
So we have to start offering coupons and specials to attract more customers
I made the site!

Even if we didn't,
Can't we just have better desserts or improve our service?
This is an improvement too! We are using new technology!
Eeh!
